REPORT.

The Managers of the Union School and Children's Home, in presenting their Twenty-first Annual Report, would express their gratitude to their Heavenly Father, for His watchful care over the "Home" during the past year, and for His goodness in again surrounding it with so many blessings.

We have no new story to relate, but bring again the old tale of want relieved, and misery alleviated: the same daily round of cares fill up our time, and when wearied and perplexed, we find our solace in the blessed assurance that our Saviour regards it as done unto Him.

Realizing that He has said "Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these little ones, ye have done it unto Me," our hearts are cheered and encouraged to press on with our work of comforting and caring for these, in many cases worse than orphan children.

We do not, after placing little ones in distant homes, feel that our care of them has ceased, but in all cases have to be satisfied of their happiness, and kind treatment, or have them returned to the "Home." Our desire is to promote their well-being, and they are justly entitled to kindness at the hands of those who reap the fruits of their toil.

The contrast has often been drawn between the advantages of such a shelter as we offer to the destitute child, and the dens into which they would probably fall, and we have only to draw the attention of the thoughtful in that direction, to animate them to help us continually, as our needs are ceaseless.

We might mention many cases where it was practicable, where parents have through drunkenness or other causes, so neglected their children as to leave them exposed to cold and want, whilst they are satisfying their cravings for more liquor, or of mothers who have thrown their little ones on the sidewalk, and in their intoxicated condition have not missed them until sober, when the natural love, if there is any left, leads the mind to reflection, and the question forces itself upon them "What has become of my children?"

Forgotten as they are by those to whom God has committed such sacred trusts, but not by the kind Saviour, who has commanded us not to despise any of His little ones, we gladly open the doors of this "Home," and welcome them in, clothe, and feed them, and try to lead these now happy hearts to a better and purer home above.

The following are extracts from the minutes :

Joseph—brought in by police officer; mother dissolute—father dead.

George—by officer; no father; has a mother who cares nothing for him.

John—by officer; parents utterly worthless.

Andrew—by father, who begged with tearful eyes that we would shelter his boy temporarily from a dissolute mother.

James—by mother who is very intemperate; deserted by his father.

Lewis—by officer; parents dead. He expressed much delight upon finding such a good home, and with sparkling eyes and a bright smile, showed his appreciation of the happy change from poverty and want.

To the bright sides of these dark pictures of misery and suffering let us turn, and be thankful for the encouraging news received during this year—that three of the children who were formerly inmates of the “Home” had given evidence of a change of heart, and united with the Methodist Church.

A boy who was placed out some years ago, recently visited us, making inquiries for his mother; he had saved some money, and thought he might add some comforts to her in her declining years by sharing his little fund with her.

During 1870, we received 36 children, placed out 38; and have returned 11 to relatives and friends. There have been but two deaths in the “Home” during the year. Drs. J. H. Hutchinson and Edward A. Smith still continue their valuable services as physicians.

Dr. Wm. Pepper having resigned on account of increasing duties, Dr. Horatio C. Wood, Jr. was elected to fill the vacancy.

The Matron and Assistant Matron—the Misses Fithian—continue to exercise their kind and parental care over the children, who are much attached to them.

Miss Tarrant, one of our teachers, died during the past summer; a devoted Christian, and one who sowed good seed, which in some instances, we have reason to hope, will bring forth fruit.

Through the kindness of the Harmony, Delaware and Good Will Fire Companies, the children had several pleasant excursions to the Park.

Our circle as a Board of Managers, has been invaded by death, and one whom we fondly loved, and whose efficiency and untiring zeal we would do well to emulate, has passed to her reward. Truly “she rests from her labors and her works do follow her.” We refer to Mrs. Margaret Crozer Bucknell, a warm and zealous friend of the Institution, and one of our most constant and devoted Managers while her health permitted.

She showed her appreciation of this work, and the warm interest she felt in it, by a liberal bequest of $10,000. As the trustees named in her will declined to act, the Philadelphia Trust, Safe Deposit, Insurance Company of the City of Philadelphia was appointed in their place, to whom the executors, after deducting the usual taxes, paid the sum of eight thousand nine hundred and thirty dollars, which was invested by said Company in the Philadelphia City Loan.

To all who have in any way contributed to the support of this Institution we again return our thanks, trusting that our work will still continue to interest them.
